English Grammar.

JOHN T. CLAIBORNE, recently from Virginia, but now a resident of this city, and a teacher of some thirty years' experience, proposes to instruc-classes in English Grammar exclusively, during the coming vacation of the Public Schools. He ha paid particular attention to the genius and grammat-peal construction of the English language, and from tast success he is confident that he would give en-line satisfaction to those who would favor him with their patronage. For the convenience of pupils, he would form three classes, to be located in the North, Central and South parts of the city. His terms will he moderate. His residence is in Segier's block, on High street where he can be found, or he will call on applicant who will leave their address at his house. Mr. Claiborne is permitted to refer to the Rev. Dr Howell, R. J. Meigs, Isaac Paul and J. F. Pearl.

Miscellaneous.

As accidents will happen, even in well regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and conve nient way for repairing Furniture, Toys, Crockery, &c. SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE meets all such emergencies, and no household can af-ford to be without it. It is always ready and up to the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for imping chairs, spiintered vencers, headless dolls and broken cradles. It is just the article for cone-shell and other ornamental work, so popular with ladies of re-finement and taste.

This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemcally heid in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best cabinet-maker's Glue. It may be sed in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly ore adhesive.

ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL Broadway, New York.

W HEN completed six years ago the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then it remains to-day—without a rival in size, in sumptuousness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1000 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public diving rooms and nothing that modern art has ic dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house at home and abroad, derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its home-like comforts and luxuries, has been enhanced every year by the unwearied exertions of the propritus.
